DANA CORPORATION PLANS TO SELL NOTES

TOLEDO, Ohio, February 25, 2002 – Dana Corporation (NYSE: DCN) announced today that it plans to make a private placement of $250 million in principal amount of notes. The company expects to commence the offering shortly. Proceeds are expected to be used to repay existing indebtedness and for general corporate purposes. The notes will be general, unsecured obligations of Dana Corporation. The notes will not have been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and may not be offered or sold absent registration or an applicable exemption from registration requirements.

This release contains “forward-looking” statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements involve assumptions, uncertainties and risks, and Dana’s actual results, performance or achievements may differ materially from those expressed or implied in these statements. Among the factors that could affect the company’s actual results are its ability to sell the above notes on acceptable terms, if at all. Additional factors are contained in Dana’s public filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Dana does not undertake to update any forward-looking statements contained herein.
