Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On February 16, 2018, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Dana Incorporated (the “Company”) appointed Michael J. Mack, Jr. and Diarmuid B. O’Connell to the Board effective February 16, 2018. Mr. Mack has been named to both the Audit Committee and Compensation Committee of the Board, and Mr. O’Connell has been named to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and Compensation Committee of the Board, effective February 16, 2018, in each case.

Mr. Mack, 61, recently retired from Deere & Co., where he had served as chief financial officer; president of the company’s Worldwide Construction & Forestry Division; and most recently as group president of John Deere Financial Services, Global Human Resources, and Public Affairs. He also held leadership roles in dealer systems, business development, engineering, purchasing, manufacturing, marketing, and finance.

Mr. Mack earned bachelor’s and master’s degrees in mechanical engineering from Iowa State University and also holds a master’s degree in business administration in finance, operations, and statistics from the University of Chicago.

Mr. O’Connell, 54, spent the last 11 years at Tesla, most recently as vice president of business development. One of the longest-serving executives at the automaker, he also served as chief of staff to the assistant secretary of state for political military affairs in the U.S. Department of State. He also held management positions with Accenture, Young & Rubicam, and McCann-Erickson.

A graduate of Dartmouth College, Mr. O’Connell earned master’s degrees in business administration from the Northwestern University’s Kellogg School of Management and international relations from the University of Virginia.

Messrs. Mack and O’Connell will receive the same compensation for their services as will be consistent with that of the Company’s other nonemployee directors. There are no arrangements or understandings between either of Messrs. Mack or O’Connell and any other persons pursuant to which either of Messrs. Mack or O’Connell were selected as director, and there are no transactions in which either of Messrs. Mack or O’Connell has an interest requiring disclosure under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

Also, on February 16, 2018, Terrence J. Keating and Mark A. Schulz notified the Board that they will not stand for re-election at the Company’s 2018 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, and will resign from the Board, effective the date of the Company’s 2018 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

A copy of the Company's press release regarding the actions above is being filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this report.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.

(d) Exhibits. The following exhibit is filed with this report.

News Release

Dana Incorporated Elects Veterans of Tesla, Deere to its Board of Directors

Two Long-serving Directors Also Announce Retirements

MAUMEE, Ohio, Feb. 20, 2018 – Dana Incorporated (NYSE: DAN) announced today that its board of directors has elected two new members – veterans of Deere and Co. and Tesla Inc. – to serve on the board effective immediately. Additionally, two long-serving directors have announced their pending retirements from the board.

Michael J. Mack, 61, recently retired from Deere & Co., where he had served as chief financial officer; president of the company’s Worldwide Construction & Forestry Division; and most recently as group president of John Deere Financial Services, Global Human Resources, and Public Affairs. He also held leadership roles in dealer systems, business development, engineering, purchasing, manufacturing, marketing, and finance.

Mr. Mack earned bachelor’s and master’s degrees in mechanical engineering from Iowa State University and also holds a master’s degree in business administration in finance, operations, and statistics from the University of Chicago. He will serve on Dana’s Audit Committee and Compensation Committee.

Diarmuid B. O’Connell, 54, spent the last 11 years at Tesla, most recently as vice president of business development. One of the longest-serving executives at the automaker, he also served as chief of staff to the assistant secretary of state for political military affairs in the U.S. Department of State. He also held management positions with Accenture, Young & Rubicam, and McCann-Erickson.

A graduate of Dartmouth College, Mr. O’Connell earned master’s degrees in business administration from the Northwestern University’s Kellogg School of Management and international relations from the University of Virginia. He will serve on Dana’s Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, as well as the Compensation Committee.

“We are pleased to be adding these two distinguished business executives to our board,” said Keith Wandell, non-executive chairman. “They are exceptional leaders with strong financial acumen, international experience, and a deep understanding of the markets Dana serves. Mike and Diarmuid bring unique knowledge to Dana as we continue to execute our electrification strategy and expand our presence in the off-highway and industrial markets. Their collective experience will be invaluable.”

In addition, Terrence J. Keating and Mark A. Schulz have decided to retire from Dana's board, effective at the conclusion of the annual meeting of shareholders, April 26. Messrs. Keating and Schultz both joined Dana's board in 2008.

"I would like to sincerely thank Terry and Mark for their decade of service to Dana. I speak for the entire board of directors when I say that their guidance and insight has been of tremendous value as the company has grown to the strong, profitable company it is today," Mr. Wandell added.
